«Boston» Says that the Free Trade movement in England gave no aid or encouragement to the Abolitionists, but was affiliated with «J. C.» Calhoun, George MacDuffie and the "Southern slave oligarchy." Outlines the Southern course of action in regard to free trade and protective tariffs. Richard Cobden never expressed his views on the Slavery question during his visits to the U.S. Harriet Martineau was right in saying that the Free Trade leaders were pro-Slavery in their personal opinions.
